2018 Grads,

As most of you likely know, this week is homecoming at Wabash. Now I am not taking the time out of your day to list off a schedule to ring the bell or guard the chapel, but I am going to inform you all of some of the great events going on this weekend.

First and foremost, if you have not been back on campus, you should. The unveiling of the new “Gateway to Campus” is occurring on Friday, October 4 at 4:30 p.m. and you can now enjoy a Typical Wabash Refreshment in the new bar and grill called Wally’s which is in Sparks Center.

The entire list of Homecoming events can be found here but see some of the highlights below.

- Thursday 9/26
 - o Chapel Sing at 11:00 A.M. Come watch the Lambda associates “voluntarily” participate, the Betas get fourth place for the 104th year in a row, and all members of the class of 2023 earn their “W” by belting Old Wabash on the mall.
- Saturday 9/28
 - o 11:00 A.M. Alumni Chapel, represents the general meeting of the National Association of Wabash Men, and the time we honor Wabash men and women for their contributions to the College and their communities.
 - o 12:15 P.M. Homecoming Luncheon, enjoy remarks from President Hess and Alumni leaders to celebrate our strong tradition of philanthropy demonstrated by student leaders over the past year. Just like in school, we will entice you with food for attending. Attendance is free but an RSVP is required.
 - o 2:00 P.M. Football takes on Denison University Big Red in Byron P. Hollet Little Giant Stadium. Tickets can be purchased here.
 - o 5:00 P.M. ‘shOUT Homecoming Reception to take place in the 1832 Brew Lounge.
 - o 7:30 P.M. Homecoming Concert in Salter Hall where the Glee Club and other Wabash ensembles will celebrate the return of alumni, friends, and family.
- Sunday 9/29
 - o 9:00 A.M. Recover from a good time at Wabash homecoming.

Homecoming at Wabash is unique and full of great traditions, which continue to evolve as the college grows. For your viewing pleasure I am attaching links to some of our class’ freshman homecoming highlights. I hope you guys enjoy them and most importantly I hope you take the time to come cheer on our Little Giants as they take on Denison University Big Red this Saturday 9/28 at 2:00 P.M.

If you have made it this far, I encourage you guys to send Jordan and I feedback. What do you want to see from us and how/where do you want to see it (i.e. Facebook, email, hand-written quill penned letter, etc.)? There have been some awesome life events that have taken place over the past 15 months since our graduation and we want to share those to keep everyone updated. We encourage you all to send your stories, photos, and updates to us so we can share with the entire class. Have a great rest of your week!
