Honor Roll 2005-2006

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends:

The 2005-06 honor roll reflects your generosity of gifts dollars, time, and talent. When Wabash asks for your help, your enthusiastic response is unwavering in support of programs such as immersion trips; scholarships; and funds for the fraternity partnership campaign. In addition, time spent at W Nights, summer internship panels, and WABASH Day in communities is just as important in making Wabash the truly great college that it is. The Honor Roll of Donors and Volunteers recognizes you who make it possible for our young men to earn a remarkable liberal arts education.

Students are the center of the College, the reason we are all here at Wabash and the reason we rely on your help offer young men a remarkable opportunity to gain a liberal arts education.

Wabash's mission to educate men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely is reflected time and again by your generous support.

On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff of the Wabash, I thank you.

Sincerely,
Patrick E. White
President

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Wabash College:

Welcome to the 2005-2006 Honor Roll of Donors and Volunteers. Your gift places you in special company among those who have invested in Wabash's mission of educating men to think critically, act responsibly, lead effectively, and live humanely.

In many ways, Wabash College has never been better. For the fifth consecutive year we received over 1,300 applications for admission. Our endowment remains one of the largest per-student endowments in American higher education. Our students enjoy state-of-the-art academic, residential, and recreational facilities.

They participate in innovative and interactive programs outside the classroom. We continue to attract top excellent teachers who are innovative researchers.

Your gifts allow us to seek ways to improve and make a strong institution even stronger.

Your gifts of time are equally important. You take time from your busy schedules to help us recruit new students; advise our fraternities; help students prepare for graduate school; help students prepare for the workforce; and help us secure support from fellow alumni, parents and friends.

As you read through this year's Honor Roll I hope you'll take time to reflect on what it represents—a special, even elite, group of people who care deeply about Wabash College and its students and invest in their future.

Our challenge for next year is to make sure these lists are even longer. You can help us in that endeavor. First, make your investment in Wabash College for 2006-2007 and be sure your name is listed here next year. Second, identify a roommate, teammate, fraternity brother, pledge brother, classmate, or other Wabash friend who is not listed here and make sure he is listed here next year.

Thank you again for your investments in Wabash's future.

Sincerely,
Joseph R. Emmick '92
Dean for Advancement

Dear Alumni, Friends, and Parents,

I am writing this after two exciting months as the Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer at Wabash College. It is truly an honor for me to be able to serve this great institution. Wabash College continues to benefit from the strong financial resources that have accumulated throughout the years; the strong physical resources of its buildings and grounds; and most importantly the strong human resources that are embodied in the dedicated faculty and staff who work here at Wabash. The financial highlights for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006 are as follows. (Please see financial statement after this letter.)

Tuition revenues for the year totaled in excess of $19.3 million. To help our students afford the cost of education, they received over $12.4 million in financial aid. Much of this aid was subsidized from outside sources including endowed scholarships ($2.8 million), restricted gifts ($.26 million), federal and state governments ($1.47 million) and other outside sources ($1.07 million). With these subsidies for our students, the net tuition discount rate is approximately 35 percent.

The endowment value at June 30, 2006 was in excess of $348 million, which represents an increase of $31 million or 9.8 percent after distributions to operations. The endowment benefited from $3.75 million in new gifts and $33.8 in market return for the year. Market return, as well as dividends and interest received, helped contribute over $15 million of support for the operations of the College and $2.8 million for endowed student scholarships.

Total gifts received by the College were in excess of $27.2 million, of which $9.5 million was used to fund the operations of the College. The Annual Fund contributed in excess of $2.68 million, with more than 37 percent participation from Wabash alumni. Given that student revenues cover approximately one-third of the total operating costs, the Annual Fund is an important source of support for the men of Wabash.

The Fraternity Partnerships that grew out of the Campaign for Leadership continued with the completion of the Phi Gamma Delta chapter house in August 2006. Extensive renovations began on the Phi Kappa Psi house, which will be completed by January 2007. Planning continues for the future needs of the Tau Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, and Delta Tau Delta fraternity houses.

Thank you again for your continued support of both time and money. I look forward to serving Wabash College in the exciting and challenging year ahead.

Sincerely,
Larry Griffith
Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer

1832 Society Honor Roll

From the Chairman of the 1832 Society

Dear Alumni and Friends:

As chairman of the 1832 Society, I want to thank you for your leadership during the 2005-2006 giving year.

Over the course of the last year, I've given a lot of thought to the phrase "lead effectively" in the College's mission statement. What does it mean to lead effectively? How do we assess effective leadership? How can we develop leadership qualities for generations to come? (See giving lists following this letter.)

I don't have all the answers to these questions, but I do know one thing for sure: all of you whose names are listed in this Honor Roll have demonstrated leadership through your gifts of money, service, and creativity.

During this time of leadership transition at Wabash, it is especially rewarding to see how many of you made gifts to the 1832 Society. Our new president, dean, and treasurer have seen – through you – the remarkable philanthropic tradition at the College.

Your leadership gifts of $1,000 or more have a meaningful impact on the Wabash experience and allow the College to provide the very best academic programs and facilities; offer increased opportunities for research and internship experiences; and provide for enhancements in career counseling and graduate school preparation.

I hope you will answer our challenge to renew your leadership support of Wabash students during the 2006-2007 giving year. In doing so, you will demonstrate to current students and to the Wabash community what it means to "lead effectively."

Yours sincerely,
Kevin G. Clifford '77
Chairman, The 1832 Society

Alumni & Parents – Wabash College Annual Fund

From the Chairman of the Wabash College Annual Fund

Wabash Alumni, Friends, and Families:

As chair of the Wabash Annual Fund, I had the opportunity to work closely with the College staff to make the case for support of the Annual Fund. During the 2005-2006 giving year, we challenged you to “See the Big Picture.” Our goal was to communicate how the collective nature of Annual Fund gifts helps to complete the Wabash experience for our students; to show you how thousands of $25, $100, or $250 gifts added together can have a profound impact on every aspect of a student’s Wabash education. (See giving lists after this letter.)

I am pleased to report that many of you responded to our call to “See the Big Picture” and all of our efforts resulted in another successful year of annual giving to the College.

In this Honor Roll, we are recognizing you — the over 4,100 alumni, parents, and friends of Wabash College, who made unrestricted gifts totaling $2,680,166 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006. This level of support is a clear affirmation of your belief in the strength of Wabash and your desire for the College to provide more and improved opportunities for its students.

I speak for all of the students, faculty, and staff who truly appreciate your participation in the life of the College when I thank you for your annual support.

The 2006 fiscal year was my final year as chair of the Wabash Annual Fund. Over the years we have made many strides to improve our unrestricted giving program and in doing so, we have enhanced the Wabash experience for hundreds of past, current, and future students.

I end my term as chair of the Annual Fund with a humble sense of gratitude for all that you do each year to keep those who learn and work on campus focused on the mission of thinking critically, acting responsibly, leading effectively, and living humanely.

I hope all of you will again join together during the 2006-2007 giving year by renewing your support of the Annual Fund. As I have said in the past, the need is ongoing, but so is the sense of satisfaction that you will feel when you have helped Wabash continue its good work.

Sincerely,
G. Michael Dill '71
National Chairman
Wabash Annual Fund

WABASH COLLEGE

O . . . C

From the Director of Alumni and Parent Relations

Dear Friends,

The 2006-2007 school year has just begun. Men are going to classes, Sphinx Club pledges are doing "air raids" on the mall, and the football team is gearing up for its season. Take a moment, if you will, and think back to your first few weeks on campus. (See links to class giving following this page.)

Now, compare that with what these young men will see. They'll walk under the Monon Bell as they enter the Allen Athletics and Recreation Center and past Chadwick Court where they won't miss, can't miss, "Wabash Always Fights!" They'll see the trophies lined up all the way down the hall . . . they'll soak in nearly 175 years of Wabash history.

At some point, they'll be lifting weights in the Allen Center and marveling at the over 7,000 square feet of exercise machines. They may live in newly renovated fraternity houses and go to class in state-of-the-art Hays Hall, totally renovated Goodrich Hall, or timeless Center Hall. They'll use the wireless computing network that pretty much encompasses the entire campus.

The interesting part? It's all Wabash and it's all "the way it is" to them. The seamless blend of history, tradition, and state of the art.

Wabash is that way because over 4,000 of you chose to keep Wabash operating from a position of strength. Your generous gifts allow us to continue to build upon the past as we work to make Wabash better every day. We sincerely thank each and every one of you.

To those of you who didn't make a gift this past year, please consider making one this year and every year. Share your Wabash experience with those who follow by simply making it available to them. The real power of our gifts is their collective strength and impact – we're all in this together.

I want to make sure Wabash is there for my grandsons . . . and their sons and grandsons. I'll bet you do as well.

Thanks for all you do for Wabash,
Tom Runge '71

The Society of Wabash Class Agents was established in 1956 by Myron G. "Phil" Phillips '27, director of alumni affairs. Class agent letters keep classmates connected to the College and each other by collecting and sharing information on what is happening on campus and with fellow class alumni.

WABASH COLLEGE

In 1987, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Wabash College established a special forum for those men and women who give a tangible expression of their deep and continuing commitment to the future of Wabash College through lifetime giving to the College of $100,000 or more. In addition to an outright gift, other avenues for funding a Presidents Club gift to the College include the pooled income fund, a charitable annuity program or trust arrangement, and an endowment life insurance policy

From the Coordinator of Volunteer Services

Dear Wabash Friends,

“How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.” Elizabeth Barrett Browning, writing nearly 150 years ago, could not have imagined the depth and breadth and height to which some individuals support Wabash. But Wabash is fortunate: it has truly amazing alumni, parents, faculty, staff, and friends who not only make financial resources available to this institution, but also invest time, energy, and talent. We include this Honor Roll of Volunteers as one way of thanking our dedicated and creative volunteers. We know that because of your commitment, our academic and co-curricular program is richer, our students’ opportunities are more plentiful, and our reach is farther with this investment. (See links to volunteer lists after this page.)

I’ve been counting the ways in which individuals volunteer to enrich the lives of our students and our programs at Wabash. Of course, I can only count what I know about, so I’m confident that these are under-estimates of the activity level. Last year, 2,707 individuals (including 14% of alumni) contributed energy, talent, and time to Wabash. Many of our friends volunteered more than once and in more than one area of the College — a total of 3,606 instances. The Classes of 2006, 1991, and 2003 had the largest number of individuals volunteering. If we look at participation percentages, the Class of 2006 leads the way, but the Classes of 2005, 2003, 1991, and 2004 are nearly tied. Whether you assisted Wabash once or a dozen times last year, we are grateful.

As always, we have more examples than we can share specifically. We want to commend the efforts of Wabash volunteers to serve their communities nationwide, and bring attention to Wabash at the same time, by participating in our first Wabash Day last October. We thank Jon Pactor '71 and the National Association of Wabash Men for providing the leadership to get this started. We commend volunteers who return to campus to serve in so many ways — teaching the summer Business Immersion Program; sharing life experiences in Big Bash 2006 Colloquia; addressing students in a Sphinx Club Chapel session; providing a suit and tie for the Clothes Closet at the Schroeder Center for Career Development; engaging students in a classroom to broaden the ideas in their textbooks; grieving with students in a fraternity when they have lost a brother; and serving this institution by identifying and recruiting the best new administrative leadership possible.

Our volunteers are active where ever they live — feeding and housing a student spending a week in Washington, D.C. on a spring break externship; visiting a high school counselor in a community distant from Crawfordsville to talk about Wabash; arranging farewell events across the country for a departing President and first lady; hosting the golf team on a beautiful and challenging Arizona course; connecting a job seeker with the appropriate employment connection in a difficult urban area — each example brings ten more to mind.

Some of us think of Wabash as a family. Others think of it as a community. Whatever your definition, we thank you for being a part of it, for making available to our students not just your dollars, but who you have become since you left Wabash.

Sincerely,
Nancy J. Doemel
Senior Advancement Officer and Coordinator of Volunteer Services
